MEXICO MAY CLAIM GULF OF CALIFORNIA

Reprinted from The Phoenix Gazette

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — A favorite sports and commercial fishing area for many residents of the U.S. Southwest — the Gulf of California — would be expressly declared Mexican territory under a bill introduced in Mexico's Congress this week.

The measure was offered by deputies (congressmen) of the opposition political party, Party of Nacional Action (PAN) with a preamble stating: "This amendment does not create a new right, but expresses it concretely in a constitutional provision."

The 850-mile-long gulf, ranging in width from 75 to 150 miles, is bounded entirely by Mexican territory: Baja California and Baja California, Southern Territory, on the west and the states of Sonora and Sinaloa on the east. One of its northern coastal points, Punto Penasco, is only about 70 miles by highway from the Mexico-U.S. border.

The gulf, which opens into the Pacific Ocean at its southern end, contains more than a dozen islands, and has for many years been frequented by U.S. sportsmen and by commercial fishermen from various countries.

Mexican fishing interests have for some time been urging the government to take action about establishing a more direct control over operations in these waters.

Foreign fishermen contend that beyond the claimed 12-mile limit for

EDITORIAL

Two months ago we asked our membership in this column to report to us just as soon as they received their copy of our Feb. Chatter which we were having printed by our friends in Puerto Penasco.

We'll venture to say that the response was nothing less than an avalanche — all against repeating the performance.

We wish it had worked out, but our members are used to the almost perfect job that Lebeau Printers have been doing for us for the past several years.

Cholla Bay Sportsman's Club Board Meeting

The Board Meeting of the Cholla Bay Sportsman's Club was called to order at the home of Lyle Rogers, President, at 8:15 p.m. on January 26, 1986. Present at the meeting were: Lyle Rogers, Harold Johnson, John Herrscher, J. L. Wilkerson, and Mel Jarvis.

Minutes of the previous board meeting were read by the Acting Secretary and approved as read.

John Herrscher gave the Treasurer's report and new bills were submitted for approval.

Mel Jarvis, Membership Chairman, reported that there was an increase in new membership. It was agreed that Prescott and Tucson should be contacted re the ordering of club pennants.

Harold Johnson, Entertainment Chairman, asked for suggestions regarding the format for future meetings. It was decided that there would again be movies at the last portion of the meeting.

JoAnn Johnson, Sick Bay Chairman, reported that Wes Douglas is doing nicely following surgery and that a card had been sent. A sympathy card was sent to the family of John Tully, who passed away at the Bay.

Ferd Esenwein reported that his map is about ready for reproduction.

Unfinished Business: Door prizes were approved of by the Board, and Mel Jarvis will be in charge of purchases.

New Business: A report was given that Wes Douglas had written the insurance company in Mexico re the possibility of an association in Mexico. A report will be made when a reply comes in the future.

The boat show in February was discussed quite extensively and it was suggested that there be someone appointed to check into the price of a Mexican flag for the show display. Mel Jarvis agreed to check on the price and availability.

The boat tax was mentioned with a decision that perhaps Dick Gardner could report at the meeting of the gathering held which he attended as our representative of the Water Sports Council.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:30 p.m. by President Lyle Rogers.

Respectfully submitted,
Toska Esenwein
Acting Secretary

February 8, 1966

February meeting was called to order by President Chris Tatum. Minutes of January were read and approved. Gerry Erny read the Treasurer's report, approved as read. Mark Morgan talked about the rent situation at the bay. Mark wants as many as possible to go to the bay with him to talk to Mr. Brown. A number of property owners volunteered to go, a date to be set by Mark Morgan.

Chris appointed Wally Robinson, our Vice President, as Chairman of our Memorial Day Derby. Mr. Justin, State Representative of Arizona was special guest to talk about the new boat tax we are to start paying this year. All personal property in Arizona is taxable. Most boats in the state are 16 feet and under. Mr. Justin is working on this tax law to make it more fair. Suggestions to this were:

1. Change the registration to $1.00 per year.
2. Charge 25 cents per foot on each boat, boats over 26 feet to be 50 cents per foot.
3. Should get boats out of Highway Division and in a Watercraft Division.

We feel that the tax is not necessary on boats and next they will tax guns, campers, bowling, golfing and other sports. According to law all boats have to be registered in the United States.

Each boat owner should send a letter to his Rep. in Phoenix. We could send a delegation from the clubs to meet at lunch with the Representatives in Phoenix. Mr. Justin is to write up an ASR to remove the boat tax. Call the Women League of Voters to get the name of your Rep. This was the first group Mr. Justin had talked to and he was overwhelmed with the fine group of 110 people that were present.

The officers of the club are to meet with Mr. Bade, the tax assessor, or the Board of Supervisors to talk about the tax on boats. We were very pleased with the interest Mr. Justin showed.

Mr. Ellis and Mr. Vlassis of Phoenix gave a talk on rods and reels, what kind to use and where. Mr. Les Stewart of Tucson Wild Life gave a talk on their club and how we could work together on this. Jack Ellis Sporting Goods gave two door prizes, dandy jack knives, won by Clyde Fox and Bill Sulfin, visitors to our meeting.

The meeting closed with coffee and cookies.

LOWER UNITS

"Hi Bill," Bill looked up as Bob walked in the shop. Hi Bob, How's things? Bill laid down the tools he had in his hand and picked up the cup of coffee. "Phuf, cold, darn it. How can I help you, Bob?"

"Well every time I put my outboard in gear and put a load on her she almost jumps on the transom." Bill stood looking at the cold coffee and said without looking up, "For one thing you need a new clutch dog." Bob came unwound, "WHAT! Bill, you just put a clutch dog in that engine." "Yah, I know," Bill said, "and I also told you, if you didn't stop nursing the thing into gear, I'd just keep putting in clutch dogs. When you wanna bring it in?" "It's outside," as Bob walked out the shop door talking to himself.

Bill's right, the outboard was made to put in gear as if you were mad at it, do this and your clutch dog will lead a long and happy life.

On the small engines, clutch dogs will last years, but on the larger engines the linkage should be checked for wear. Worn linkage can cause the clutch dog adjustment to change and the result is an engine jumping out of gear under load.

If the control cable adjustment linkage adjustment is right, at the time of installation and you get a little mad at your shift lever when you shift, you should have a healthy clutch dog for a long time.

One of the fallacies of the lower unit is the leaking lower unit. Many a lower unit has been rebuilt only because it was doing the job it was designed to do, bleed off the extra oil and gas that's not burned by the engine. The lower unit has a small drain hole in it for this purpose. So if your lower unit has an oily look, be sure it isn't engine oil and gas. Any experienced nut-buster can tell the difference.

You would think that if water could get in, gear grease would get out, so if you find water in the old gear box, when you change gear grease and yet there is no sign of grease leaking out, it is a 50 to 1 chance you have a bad seal under the water pump. Go see your favorite outboard shop.

It's an easy chore to check for water in the lower unit. Remove the lower drain plug only. If there is any water it will be there. If you change the grease and it has the look of death, you're getting water, not much yet, but your getting it. Type C gear grease (the type you should use in any OMC engine) is designed to absorb 50% water and still lubricate.

Some of the boys use just any old No. 90 gear grease, could be disastrous, some grease and water won't mix and under agitation cause gas, and you could loosen the seals in the lower unit.

I've had engines come into the shop and I almost flip when I see the prop. I do a 30 to 40-dollar tune-up on an engine and then have to put on a prop so out of pitch, it would shake the teeth out of a tiger shark. Think what it does do the shaft and seals of the lower unit. Have the prop checked when the engine is tuned up and take the advice of your mechanic, have the prop replaced or repaired if it needs it.

Now, some of the Do's and Don'ts of the lower unit —

DO check it for grease often, every two or three times of use.

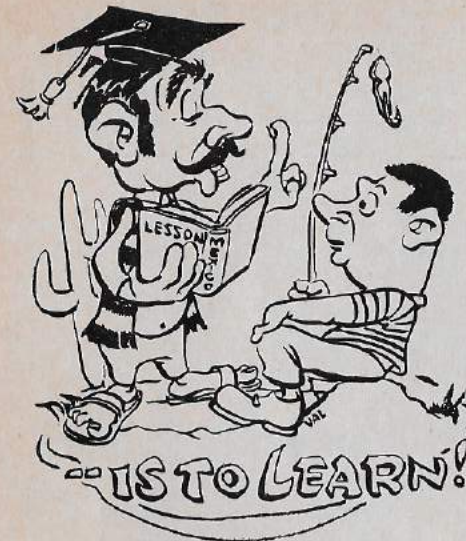

DO have the linkage and adjustments checked at tune-up time.

DON'T use just any old gear grease. Only manufacturer's specifications.

DON'T ease your engine into gear, slap it in.

DON'T run a bad prop on your engine.

territorial waters, the gulf is in the same category as the open sea.

However, the bill would put it entirely under Mexican control.

It states, "The nation is entitled to direct domain of all the natural resources of the Gulf of California, the continental shelf, the islands, and all the underwater areas."

The bill calls for "express statement that the Gulf of California is property of the nation and that the latter has control of exploitation of all natural resources. The gulf should be considered as "an interior sea or Mexican lake," the proposal says, and adds that "foreign vessels should respect as a closed sea the northern part of the Gulf of California." The southern portion of the gulf, which opens directly into the Pacific Ocean, presumably could be considered as open sea under the bill.

WHEN SOCIALIZED MEDICINE BECAME LAW IN THE UNITED STATES THIS OCCURRED:

A man needed medical attention, so he went to the proper building. Upon entering the front door, he was faced with a series of more doors designated with the name of an ailment, such as Appendicitis, Heart Trouble, etc. He felt sure his trouble would be diagnosed as appendicitis, so he entered that door. Next he found himself faced with two other doors, one marked "Male," the other "Female." Entering the door marked "Male," he found himself in a corridor with two doors marked "Protestant" and "Catholic." Entering the "Protestant" door, he found two other doors marked "White" and "Colored." He entered the "White" door and was then faced with two more doors marked "Taxpayer" and "Non-taxpayer." He still owned his home so he went through the door marked "Taxpayer" and now found himself confronted with doors marked "Married" and "Single." He had a wife at home so he entered the door marked "Married." Once more there were two doors "Republican" and "Democrat." He was a "Republican" so he entered that door and fell nine floors to the alley.

It sure looks like our new council is going places. We have a new CB radio in and working at Cholla Bay. Also, they have contact with the CAP in Ajo. Dick Miller and Chris Tatum sure are going to town with their end of the deal.

We have some fine maps of the area from Bird Island to South and West of the Sand Dunes, thanks to Mr. Esenwein.

Harold Johnson is doing a fine job on the entertainment. He also has some dandy programs coming up in March and later dates.

Mr. Brown has the road in fine shape. You can travel in and out without wrecking your car and boat. The area is nice and clean, which is something that hasn't happened before (should be with rent increase).

If there is anything left of Wes Douglas, our Insurance chairman, when the doctors get through with their cutting, he will be back pitching again. (Sorry you're sick, Wes!)

Sorry, I can't write any more, gotta go fishin'.

Writers Needed

1. We need an article about clams —
2. Also would like to have article from someone re shrimp types, prices, with a recipe for good shrimp sauce.
3. Off main road trips around the Bay.
4. For an article on where to get boat or car parts in case of breakdown in Mexico.

General Nuisance Information

1. Rate of exchange for Mexican money — 12½ pesos equal $1 (American).
2. Nearest church for Catholic families is in Puerto Penasco.
3. Someone inquired if there were any needy families at Cholla Bay, and we found out there are not many but there are some families in need at Puerto Penasco.
4. Sea sick preventative — STAY OFF A BOAT!
5. New roadways are being started at Cholla, so watch out for fence posts and barbed wire.

Our sincerest thanks go to the San Marcos Hotel of Chandler, Arizona, for their generosity in donating the room for the first council meeting of 1966. We had a lovely banquet room, complete with water, pads, pencils, etc. The very efficient waiters kept the coffee coming to help the meeting progress. For all this, what more can we say than, "Thank you, one and all."

PROGRESS 1966: A new CB radio has been installed at the Bay. It is a Pace transistor radio and will not drain the power supply. There has also been progress made on replacing the power plant and battery system with a new generator. So now, all of you should be able to call Cholla Bay without any problems and perhaps the breakdown periods will be a thing of the past.

PHOENIX CHAPTER

On Tuesday, Feb. 8, 1966, there was an exceptionally fine film presented by Mr. Bob Whitaker. The pictures were of a trip taken by Bob Whitaker and Micky Toliver to Guatemala City, Panama City and to the mountain trout streams 100 miles from David.

The slides showed Lake Antigua, a blue water lake, some beautiful scenes of various plazas, luxurious hotels, ancient brick churches, and many colorful shots of coffee trees, full blooming poinsettia plants, banana trees, and all in color.

The highlights of the films were the excellent pictures of Bob and Micky catching marlin on bonita bait, sailfish, dolphin, rooster fish, grouper, and Micky's prize catch of one rainbow trout (6" or so).

The writer can hardly begin to describe this delightful showing with the entertaining dialogue. We are sure that all who viewed these delightful pictures were sea-green with envy and probably made mental notes that should the occasion arise, this trip was a must.

MEL SEZ —

Cooperate with your Safety & Search and Rescue Committee, use the new grid system on the map. YES, we finally have a map of Cholla Bay. See your local chapter for copies of this map.

MARCH MEETING: Your Search and Rescue Committee will give a full report of their programs. This should be most informative and it is a part of the club that all should take an interest in, since it might be nice to know what will be done in case you get lost.

WHY WE LIKE MEXICO

Tucson, Ariz.
Jan. 19, 1966

On our last trip to Choya Bay, I left my billfold on the desk at the Immigration Office. I didn't miss it until we reached the Bay. Les wanted to drive back to the Border, but as there were so many people getting visas, I didn't know who might have picked it up, so we decided not to drive back. Four days later when we reached the Border, there was my billfold locked safely in the Official's desk. You will never know how grateful I was as it would have taken me weeks to have replaced the many cards stacked away in that one little purse. May we always appreciate the fine men who guard our safety and the safety of our possessions. Thanks again, Mexico.

ANOTHER ONE OF US

Vasquez Liquor Store, Sonoyta, Sonora, Mexico is quite the place for those who like to choose their liquors. I am sure they must have every kind of liquor you could possibly want to purchase. They have recently enlarged their store area, and you can wander at your best to find exactly what you are looking for. The clerks are very courteous and do not rush you around.

Also, above the doors you enter, you should take notice of the decorative masks there. They are most interesting.

For your liquor buying for Cholla Bay or for taking home, make it a point to try Vasquez Liquors.
