HAPPY NEW YEAR

Don't worry if you work hard and your rewards are few.
Remember! The mighty oak was once a nut like you.

Good friends are like hard boiled eggs!
You like them even if they are cracked!

Age is:
A matter of mind,
If you don't mind
It doesn't matter.

DON'T MISS
YOUR MEETINGS!

PHOENIX CHAPTER GENERAL MEETING
By Marie MacGill

December 9th, the last meeting of 1981 was a fun time with everyone enjoying themselves. Our President, Paul Schoonover (on crutches) was just getting over a knee operation, but he conducted the meeting as usual. Wife Grace came along just in case he needed some help. Good to see you with us Grace.

We want to thank our guest, Betty Reder for coming, and also Verlene Barber and husband (Dondo) Don. It was nice having Bill McCoullah with us again.

Joe and Roma Blunk would have a standing ovation for the fine job they have done for 1981 membership. Roma reported that we now have ONE THOUSAND and FOUR MEMBERS. She also reported that they sold six memberships as Christmas gifts.

Ships Store, Jim Westfall reported that sales were very good for October and November. He said the Tide Calendars were some where in the mail, but he will certainly have them for sale at the January meeting.

Mort Staub had George Rodgers report on the Christmas party to be held at Cholla Bay for the families. George said that there have been many, many offers of help and knew that the party was going to be most successful. A full report will follow at the next meeting in January.

Bill MacGill read the Audit Report that he and Ken DeHoff had just made for 1981, which was approved by the members.

Our Sick Bay Reporter, Hilda Ekert was not with us as her mother had just arrived from Germany for a joyous reunion, but it was reported that Ray and Shirley Hemphill were unable to attend as Shirley's father is very ill. Bob and Velma Fulton could not be with us as Bob has had a knee operation and Velma had her wrist operated on. We all send our best wishes to all concerned.

Nancy LaPointe, our Cholla Bay Chatter gave her report and asked that a few people volunteer to assist in various duties.

We all thank Les Ormsby for the splendid job on entertainment for the year of 1981.

Election of Officers was held and the following people were elected:

President - - - Dave Conners
Vice Pres. - - - Jack Ebert
Secretary - - - Mary Reinert
Treasurer - - - Fran Johnson

Board of Directors are: Jim Westfall, Joe Reinert, Butch Wilda, Von Gottbreht Les Ormsby, and Joe Blunk. Let's all wish them lots of luck for 1982.

The lucky winners of the Christmas raffle were: ceramic Christmas tree, Wanda Lee; crocheted afghan, Doris Davis, THE boy baby doll, Mary Parker. The door prizes were won by George Rodgers, a huggie; Maxine Rodgers, a Christmas rope; sand dollar necklace was won by Tom Watson and Jayme Jasowaik won a Madonna statue. Roma Blunk made the sand dollar necklace and Wanda Lee made the Christmas rope and Madonna statue. Congratulations all you lucky people.

Bill Friedhoff filled in on entertainment for Les and showed an interesting film on old towns in Arizona. Thank you, Bill.

May 1982 bring all of you many blessings.

HAPPENINGS AT PELICAN POINT
By Marie MacGill

Thanksgiving Holiday brought a lot of people to the Bay. Pelican Point had its share of wind and sand, but we all survived with a few sand blasted faces, arms and legs. Familiar faces seen around that weekend include, Ray and Shirley Haenfler, Zulma Olivera, Al Wilson, the Rick Hansons and friends Hal and Evelyn McKenzie entertained guests, and so did Elaine Blackman, our next door neighbor. Arthur Woodward's cottage was occupied. Sorry to hear that Mrs. Woodward had passed away last summer. The Millers, Gene and Dee were busy celebrating with their family. Grady Hendricks was happy having his relatives and other guests for the holiday. Bob and Thelma Loundsbury came for rest and got it. A new house is being built on the hill top behind our neighbors house. The Medina twins are growing like weeds; beautiful boys.

Ken and Mary Fran DeHoff had just returned from Tucson where they had been visiting their new nine pound grandson, that arrived on November 16th. They also went to San Carlos in November where they had a very nice fishing trip, catching two big dolphins that they were thrilled about. George and Lydia Panek had returned from their enjoyable trip to Santa Rosalia and Conception Bay. Clarence and Bea Allums are taking their daughter, Linda and her family to their place in San Carlos for Christmas. They still have their nice cottage on the water at Cholla Bay for sale.

Until next time, Good fishing and Happy New Year.
