HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND PELICAN POINT

By: Marie MacGill

The wind at Cholla Bay is still laughing the loudest as it tosses ones hair and kicks pebbles in our eyes, while all of this makes the fishermen cry, as they stand by and let the sailfish jump toward the sky.

Augustine had his lucky day when he cast into the blue yonder off the shore rocks and caught a twelve pound Mackerel.....Grady Hendricks cast off the rocks at Pelican Point and caught a seven pound Sea Trout. Nub Moore cast off on the Point and caught a seventeen pounder.

Paul Schoonover and Les Ormsby were at the bay to do some fishing but on Sunday, the 12th of June, the wind kept them out of the water. Noticed that 2/14 was also down.

Ron and Jody Mallicoat of Cabin #72 came to the bay on June 6th. Their daughter Kim and husband George Wilkins and their two small sons, daughter Kelly, son Kevin, daughter Pam Watters and sons and old friends Mitch and Delores Adams all joined them for a week of fun and sun. Jody and Delores decided to stay a week longer for some fun and relaxation and oversee the painting job.

Butch (Firecracker) and Ethel Heldt will be giving up the ship in a few days until cooler weather in October. We shall all miss them.

Ed and Marty Perlmutter are housesitting and pet sitting for friends in the Prescott area. Jane Hunziker and Thelma Brown have left the Bay for the summer.

We welcome Joe and Luella Johnson who recently purchased the Underdown's cabin in Cholla Bay. Sorry to report that our former water man Gaspar is seriously ill in San Luis, Mexico. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Bob and Thelma Loundsbury, son Brian and his wife Carole and their two daughters were on the point the weekend of June 6th. Jayne and Wimpy Jaskowiak, with Jayne's mother Lou also came to the bay on the same weekend for some fun and sun.

The gas station in Cholla Bay is closed temporarily. It isn't known at present time when it will reopen or by whom. The board is working very hard to have gas there once more. Anyone going down fishing should make arrangements to get gas from Rocky Point.

May the Cool Breezes still continue to caress your cheeks.

DAY THREE - SATURDAY MARCH 19, 1983

Boy was our trail boss mad!! Well you see the sun was shining; it was the first day we saw a blue sky; we only had 46 miles to go; it was the last leg of the trip and we were slow in moving.

But the magic words finally worked and we were in the river bottom (dry today) at 8:50 A.M.

A visitor joined us on this leg of the trip using the spare ATC from the support truck (see credits on Page 13) and Shay, also, took on a passenger.

9:15 A.M. (9.5 miles) We came across the first fence. A couple of our guys held the fence up so we could crawl under with our bikes (after which it was restored as if never touched).

9:40 A.M. (15.9 miles) We drove over the second fence and repaired it after everyone got across. This was the end of the river bottom. Richard always seemed to know where the flowers were. We stopped here but Rich said let's go over the hill to the flowers for pictures and sure enough beauty abounds.

10:35 A.M. (25 miles) We are on top of a mountain and, oh look, we can see the ocean, Sand Hill, Black Mountain and even Bird Island!! We're almost there... great place for a beer break (with these guys ANY PLACE is a good place for a beer break!).

11:35 A.M. (31.2 miles) We stopped to get our bearings. We ran out of road and had to figure out the right direction to head for the old cock fight ranch.

This leg was definitely bumpy. We crossed the desert bushes slowly and carefully. Not a bad leg, though, since we only poked holes in 8 beer cans.

11:50 A.M. (32.5 miles) Yeah!! The ranch is in sight. Beer break time!! If we keep this up we're going to have to drink the foamy water/beer straight out of the chests!

Magic words, off again with very explicit instructions from the assistant trail boss (Bill): "NO MORE BEER BREAKS!!...'cause the next stop is the Cantina at Cholla Bay!"

12:40 P.M. (39.7 miles) BEER BREAK (sorry boss you were out-numbered). Here we crossed the railroad tracks; and wouldn't you know it, a train was comin'.

1:25 P.M. (46.2 miles) Cholla Bay, Sonora, Mexico.

Well, here we are, being escorted by Augustine, our Mexican police, to the Cantina.

EPILOGUE

248 miles, 24 1/2 hours riding time over a span of 2 1/2 days and 13 people still had the energy to lift their hands (which held a margarita) and toast to Bob Thompson, our trail boss for getting us here.

Not to mention that some of us still had the energy to bury the trail boss' bike up to the handle bars in sand and sat back and enjoyed the look of astonishment(?) on his face. Don't cry, Bob...look at it this way...we love you!!.

CREDITS

A very special thanks to Bob Thompson, Richard Cridebring and Bill Coughlin whose efforts were enormous in charting the way.

To Larry Hauptman who after those tiring hours fed the troupes a scrumptious meal.

A thanks to the guys for never questioning that us three girls couldn't keep up with them on this rigorous ride.

We must spend a few lines here for a special thanks to our support crew. They were recruited the day before the trip, Jim was injured with, among other things, broken ribs, but they all had the enthusiasm you could ask for in helping all of us with our campsite and our gear. Without them this trip could not have taken place nor run as smoothly as it did. Thank you, Pat Appleby, Jim Bernardine and Karen McLain.

Thanks to John Lofthouse, who unfortunately had to cancel on this trip, for giving us an extra ATC just in case one of ours broke down. Fortunately, we didn't need it but it was nice to know it was around.

To Arch Harper for the 22 foot horse trailer and truck.

And thanks to everyone for keeping all litter with their ATCs until it could be disposed of properly.

OKAY GUYS, WHEN'S THE NEXT TRIP?!!!

A FEW PARTING WORDS.....

Well it's over now and as we sit back and reflect upon those 2 1/2 glorious days, we have this to say:

We have all done exciting and adventure-some things in our lives, but we can rank this trip close to the top of the list.

Sure the weather could have been better, but even that did not diminish the light from the glowing faces of our 13 emissaries of adventure.

NAVIGATOR'S NOTEBOOK

by Paul Schoonover

Last month, in talking about speed, time and distance, we mentioned the nautical mile. The length of the nautical mile was determined by dividing the circumference of the earth (131,241,600 feet), by 360° , then by 60 to find the length of one minute arc. One minute ($01'$) of arc on the surface of the earth equals 6076 feet. This is one nautical mile.

The location of a point on the surface of the earth is described by it's Latitude and Longitude.

Longitude is the distance East or West of Greenwich, England defined in degrees to a maximum of 180° and labled East or West.

Latitude is the distance North or South of the equator defined in degrees to a maximum of 90° and labled North or South.

For instance, the location of Pelican Point at Cholla Bay is $30^{\circ}21.5'$ North and $113^{\circ}40.2'$ West.

On a nautical chart of an area, the longitude scale is drawn on the top and bottom of the chart. East is on the right hand side and West on the left hand side.

The Latitude scale is on the sides with North at the top and south at the bottom.

Because one minute of latitude equals one nautical mile, regardless of your location, the latitude scale of your location may be used as a mileage scale. Do not try to use the longitude scale. The Latitude scale is usually drawn to $.01'$. Therefore the scale is to $.01$ nautical mile.

Shadows were lengthening and the boats were still coming in.

PHOENIX CHAPTER GENERAL MEETING

By: Marie MacGill

We all shared in an enjoyable evening. We had our usual jolly large crowd with several new members. Thanks to all of you for coming. Maggie Reece, Doris Davis' sister was with us, who came all the way from Lyons, Kansas.

We want to thank Nub Moore for being with us, as well as Ralph and Peggy Collins, Glen and Sara McWorter, Bill and Charlotte Reed, Bill and Jackie Beem and Stan Christian and Carolyn Johnson, Chris and Dennis Johnson and Bill Yonkers. Please hurry back.

It was good to see Billye Wilda of membership, cast and all looking so well. She reported that we are still getting more new members. Mike Kemper of Ship's Stores reported that they sold out of tee shirts at the fishing Derby. Over 400 were sold. He said the jackets have been reduced in price and that Tide calendars are half price. Thats a good deal with half of a year left. Sick Bay, Hilda Erkert reported the death of Tony Ford, a long time cabin owner, #91 of Cholla Bay since the 1940s. Tony succumbed to a heart attack at his home in Phoenix June 6th. Butch Wilda of Search and Rescue said there were no serious problems during Memorial weekend, except several vehicles were stuck in the sand and at Black Mountain.

Nancy LaPoint will be chairman and Fran Johnson Co-chairman of the annual dance that will be held September 10th at the Saddle Club. They need two more couples to help them with all of the work, so please give them a hand if you can. Also please bring things for prizes at the July and August meetings. The club is also asking for items to be raffled off for the Christmas party for the children and families of Cholla and for the Orphanage.

Butch Wilda said Billye is expecting to have the soft back Cook Books that the ladies are putting together ready on or before Christmas.

President Wil Williams said the Radios and Equipment are being up-dated and replaced at the Radio Shack and that we should soon have excellent reception.

Glen Davis and his helpers were given a big hand for their excellent job done on the Fishing Derby. As was said before Glen Doesn't give up and wont give up. All of the cooks deserve a standing ovation for the delicious food served.

Our friends from Vasquez Liquors and Curios at Sonoyta did a Super job of supplying refreshing drinks for that thirsty bunch. They were delicious. And we thank you more than words can express. GRACIAS!

Sr. Lionel Limon, head of Tourism gave a friendly speech welcoming us all to Mexico. Many prizes were given and a good time was had by all. (See Glen Davis column of some of the winners, and of the fortunate winner of the years property lease that THAT MR. GUS BROWN GAVE AS A PRIZE.)

Third prize was won by Marilyn Robson, a combination tooth paste holder and tooth brush. (sold at Ship's stores). 2nd prize went to Joe Blunk, an aerial green pant flag and jacket. 1st prize went to John Robson, dinner for two at HUNAN RESTAURANT, 1575 E. Camelback. The Christmas Raffles were won by Wanda Lee, a knitted cap and shawl that Roma Blunk made and donated, and an oil painting was won by Betty Waggoner that Wanda Lee painted and donated. Along with the dinner tickets John Robson also won a red pant aerial flag.

After the meeting ajourned the second part of the CPR class was held.

Have a pleasant 4th of July.
