PHOENIX CHAPTER GENERAL MEETING
Marie MacGill

The October 14th meeting was very interesting, and we all had fun. Was nice seeing some faces that hadn't been there for awhile.

First of all, I would like to say that the Cholla Chatter has a new Editor. She is now of the newer members, Nancy LaPointe. Nancy has taken over Betty Woodward and Shirley Hemphill's Co-Editors job. Nancy owns Cabin #128 at Cholla Bay. If you have any news for the Chatter, please contact her at 279-3628. I don't think there are enough words to describe the fine job that Betty and Shirley did and to tell about all of their efforts and hard work, so will just say BETTY and SHIRLEY, we love you, and THANKS!

Some of the officers weren't here and some had to leave early, so that cut the time down. We had a film showing of Mexico with their ancient building and ruins that was very interesting.

Joe and Roma Blunk said that membership has dropped off because some people did not renew their membership. Please pay and come back. We didn't have a sick by report, so hope everyone is well. Ship's Stores reported a good month. Jim Westfall has a lot of tee shirts for sale. They are pretty fancy looking, so see Jim. We didn't have any Search and Rescue report, so all must be well there.

Don Barber (Dondos) won 1st prize, a flash light, 2nd prize was won by Newt Grefenson, an oil drain can pan. Grank Gianelli, 3rd prize, a 2½ gallon Fire Ball water jug. Betty Williams' mother made a beautiful Afghan that will be raffled off in December, so please come and buy some tickets in November and December. It is really a beautiful prize. Newt Grefenson bought a boy doll to the meeting that Jim Halserman donated for the Christmas Raffle. It's like the one that George Rodgers brought last year to be raffled for the Christmas party. You will surely want tickets on this super prize!!!!!!

Joe Blunk reported that he is still looking for officers for 1982, and especially a 1982 President. Wouldn't you like to get involved? Joe's telephone number is on the inside back page of the Chatter.

Until next time, Good fishing and Happy Thanksgiving.

Hi,
Taking over the editorship of the CHOLLA CHATTER from Betty and Shirley is certainly a hard act to follow. Please bear with me as I begin this venture. I encourage all old and new members to contact me with their thoughts and ideas concerning the Chatter. This newspaper is for all of us, and without support it is only as strong as the weakest link.

HAPPENINGS AT PELICAN POINT

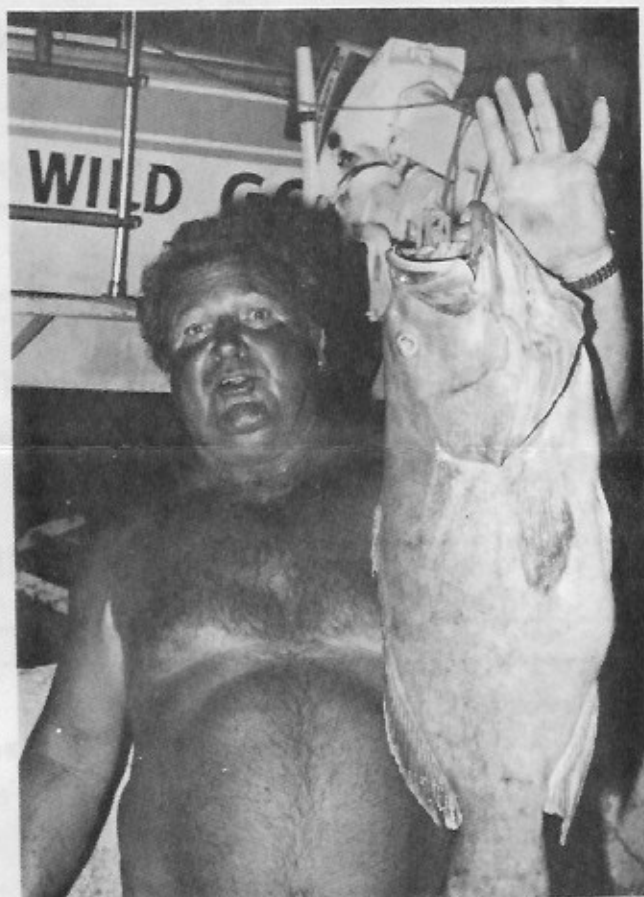

By Marie MacGill

The wind and sand have still been stealing the show at the Bay and on Pelican Point, but it's very good to feel the nice autumn breezes.

George and Lydia Panek left for LaPaz and other points in Mexico on October 17th. The middle of September, Clarence and Bea Allum of the HONEY BEA went to San Carlos for a couple of weeks. The Ongs of the CHINETA II joined them, and of course the MacGills had to get into the act and joined them all, except we didn't take BELLA MARIA. The first day out was on Roy's CHINETA II, and believe you me there was plenty of excitement. Ester Ong brought in a 99½" Sail. She handled that rod like a real pro and brought him in without any hesitation. She said that's another trophy for her living room wall. The next day on the HONEY BEA I caught a nice size Dorado (Dolphin), my first after trying for five years to land one. That was pretty exciting. After we returned home Bea landed a big 34 pound and 56" long Dorado. That gave her a pretty good fight, but Bea is not to be scoffed at when it comes to fishing.

On September 28th Jerry and Jimmie Numm had a big party at Roosevelt Lake. They fed one hundred and fifteen people from their camper and all had a blast. The Wilkersons whose cabin burned in Cholla Bay last year were there. Little blind eight year old Jennifer Jenkins skied behind her family boat for the first time. There was all kinds of excitement and everyone is ready to go again.

When you are in Scottsdale, please stop in at THE INSIDE EDGE at 7246 East 1st Street and see Dottie Lee and perhaps hubby Bill might be in. Dottie is now the new owner of this nice gift shop and I'm sure she would like to see you. Have a Happy Fall.

You read all about the GOLDEN GROUPEr that was caught by "two" - this is a picture of one of the two with the ever popular star of the story.

ONE OF LIFE'S NICE SURPRISES....

Shirley Hemphill

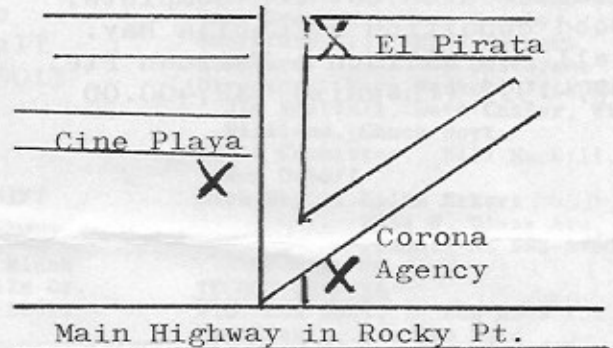

In late September we invited a group of friends with sand buggies to our annual sand buggy trip to Crown King. For those of you who don't know where Crown King is, it is 85 miles north of Phoenix right on top of the Bradshaw Mountains.

We left Crown King early Saturday morning and headed out the "Old Senator Highway" which connects through the backway from Prescott to Crown King. It is a very primitive road (not suitable for passenger cars) and rather deserted. Anyway, there we were puttsying along enjoying the pine trees, blue sky, fresh air and a day in the wild when we met a jeep. The driver asked if we would wait just a minute and someone started climbing out of the back seat of the jeep. No one can imagine our surprise when we finally saw who it was....Ed "Sir Veza" Perlmutter. All the way from Cholla Bay to the backroads of Prescott. They were on their way to Crown King - so we just stopped there in the middle of the road and had our visit. Ed recognized us as we were the first in line - then as the others drove up we sure had a noisy reunion....The Eberts, Connors, Jaskowiaks, Woodwards, McKnights, Hausers and Olsens. We all posed in front of, behind and beside the sign post and put Ed in the middle - sort of proves it that it all reality - it really is a small, small world doesn't it?

CAFE LA RANITA is gone from Cholla Bay, but the owners, Roberto and Maya Pineda are not forgotten. Roberto and Maya have opened a new restaurant in Puerto Penasco. Their new restaurant is called EL PIRATA and is now serving the same delicious food and drink, and best of all Roberto is still singing and playing his guitar for all to enjoy. EL PIRATA is opened daily (except Tues.) from 12 to 10 p.m. The following map will get you to the new restaurant.
