PHOENIX CHAPTER GENERAL MEETING

By: Marie MacGill

President Dave Conner called the meeting to order, and Jim Westfall led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. After that everyone introduced themselves. The reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report were dispensed with so we could have more time for nominations for next year's officers.

Mary Reinert reported that our membership is: 719 voting and 133 sponsored, for a total of 852.

Ship's Store needs someone to take over beginning January 1989 as Deanne and Gene Miller have to give it up because of their busy schedules. Any volunteers out there? We thank the Millers for the great job they did this past year.

Sick Bay reported that Don Barber had surgery and is undergoing further medical treatments. We all send get well wishes to you, Don.

Roma and Joe Blunk's lovely granddaughter, Veronica Blunk, whom we all know as "Punkin'", was here. She is a candidate for queen of the Black and White Ball in Puerto Penasco that is to be held Nov. 25. "Buena Suerte", Punkin'. You have all our votes.

Search and Rescue reported 277 boats launched and only 4 tow-ins for the month of October.

Christmas party time is getting close -- Dec. 17. Chairwoman Sue Kudis reported that canned green beans, corn, peas, lard, toys, etc. are still needed. The items can be brought to Sue's house in Cholla Bay, #432. If you can't locate her, leave them at Patty's Store. Let's all pitch in and help Sue make a smashing success of this party.

Sal Otanez from Tucson will be Santa again this year, and JoAnn, his wife will be his helper.

Dave Conner reported that the annual fall picnic was a success. All the children won prizes and so did a few "big kids". Putting the picnic together was a lot of work. Thank you Von and Lew and all of your helpers.

Nominating Committee chairman, Marty Martin presented the names of people who will run for the Phoenix Chapter offices for 1989. Voting will be at the Dec. 14th meeting. Please try to be there.

It was announced that the Council meeting was changed to November 16, from Nov. 10 because most people would like to be at the Bay during the Veteran's Day long weekend.

There are still plenty of raffle tickets for Sarah McWhorter's gorgeous stained glass window. They are $5.00 each. The money goes to the CBSC Building Fund.

We met some new members and visitors: Joanne Bobal and her daughter, Kim Tlapa are members of the Tucson Chapter but now reside in Phoenix. Hope they continue to come to our meetings. Art Day from the Tucson Chapter was also here. Lani and Wes Esperago are new members as of this meeting. They came with their friends, James and Joyce Flack who are also recent new members. Another visitor was Donna Caraker, guest of Connie and John Norsworthy. We're glad to meet all of you and we hope you'll be at our meetings often.

Joan Vanover won the Christmas certificate. The door prizes went to:

Joe Reinert -dinner for 2 at Hunan's
Jerry Nelson -picnic plates & glasses
Wayne Kudis -a clock
Jim Dumas -a portable gas BBQ.

Gentle Ben Boyd bought a Black & White Ball ticket and gave it to Sue Kudis to auction off for the Christmas party fund. Guess who won the auction? You got it -- Hustler, aka Wayne Kudis.

CHOLLA BAY CHAPTER GENERAL MEETING

Membership report, Hanna stated we now have 425 members. We now can add to that figure 6 or 8 more. Our Chapter keeps growing, let's keep it moving.

Veronica Blunk, is running for the Queen of Black and White Ball this year. Chuck Payne has tickets, should you wish to purchase them.

The nominating committee has a few names on the list, Ralph Smith as President, T. Shirt Bob, Vice President, Phyllis Smith Treasurer, and Beverly Glantsenapp for Board of Directors. Should any one wish to be an officer of the Cholla Chapter, please contact, Chuck Payne, Ralph Smith or Oscar Newman, before December 12th.

There will be a Christmas party get together at La Curva on December 15th. For more information on this please contact Phyllis Smith.

Our door prizes and raffle went great, thanks to T. Shirt Bob. Some of our prizes were, tickets to Black & White Ball, donated by, Chuck Payne, Bogie Jordan, Ralph Smith, Glen Davis. Dinner for two at La Curva. A tank of water from Patty. Brandy, Set of glasses, just too numerous to list them all.

Our next meeting will be December 13th. We will have (flying fish) so ladies that means bring a dish that will go with the flying fish, and desserts. The time on this next meeting has changed to be at 4:00 pm.

I (Opal) would personally like to thank the Cholla Bay Chapter for the dinner at La Curva. I also would like to thank the management, waiters and waitresses at La Curva for the good food and excellent service.

We do hope to see lots of members at our December meeting, bring a friend and join in on some real good food and fun.

See Ya,
Opal

NEW

Charlie strikes again
the weekend of Oct. 28, 1988

On the weekend of Nov. 11 newcomers in the bay would have thought it was a fishing derby weeking especially on sat. at one point someone said they counted 52 boat trailers.

There were 8 guys from El Paso and Las Cruces some of them were new comers and some of them had been here before but they had 2 days of real fishing On the boat Sea Devilwere Captain Charlie Calhoon and crew John Phillips; Paul Ronch, Archie Bockett. On the other boat Flying Cullors captain Elmer Cullors and crew Jim Martin, Jerry Williams, and Murray Vann. With Charlie as their guide over the weekend they caught 3-75lb. groupers several in the 50 lb. range and one baby 35 lb.plus lots of mackerel

Hope to see these guys back before long,

FISHING! A WONDERFUL EVENT OCT. & NOV.

The past two weekends-Halloween & the 5th of Nov. 88 the magnet of Mexico drew us to our beautiful Sea of Cortez.. Down we came to Cholla Bay Sonora to cabin # 403 Sunworshiper Thursday night Halloween weekend. We had anticipation of lots of fish and maybe and overnight at San Jorge Bay in the boat. No work, just play! Fishing Fishing-scales guts crabs and good eating! I had a new toy too a B.B. Q. grill for the boat that we planned to B.B.Q. fresh Sierra on--our favorite seafood

Anyhow we launched Saturday after working all day Friday repacing the whole outdrive that had just been repaired. We sat our heading for 22 mile reef as we had heard the fish were there!

About 12 miles out we heard a clunk and a grinding. One of our outdrives was speaking to us! It said "turn me OFF"! so we did. What to do? we were definatly slower so we decaded to head to the 10 mile reef (270) off Pelican Point. That we could do on 1 (one) engine. Never give up--that's us!

After seeing the reef on the depth finder Clive started his long process of finding a place to toss in the orange marker. I set in my chair & had a cold Beer- with the cut bait next to me heating up with the sun.

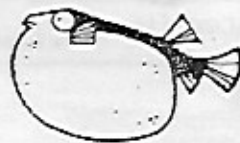

Finally after 45 minutes of smelly hot bait and cruising, in went the marker between (2) two 30' peaks of the reef. We then estimated which way the tide was running and started fishing'up river' from the bouy.

The minute our weights touched bottom, strike! Clive's pole bent to the water and my handline started pulling. Clive had a big one-Damn it, it broke his line! I had a rock bass.

From then on we pulled up a zillion (Cochi) Trigger Fish, they sure look like some of our toothy relatives! On the 3rd or 4th drift by I had a real yank on my handline - so much I could hardly hold it. Up came a beautifull copper stripped Pargo! We fished joyfully for 2 hours with sore arms, fingers 4 Pargo, 2 Pinto and a zillion Trigger fish. It was almost like the "old days" each time we wetted a line we got one! I wonder if the Acapulco Bay Beach Club could be called trigger happy? We pulled the whole outdrive off the Sunworshiper Sunday and Headed home to Phoenix.

Noel

HUMMINGBIRD

reprinted 1988

We all enjoy the little humming birds who visit us yearly, but have you ever seen one build the nest, tend the eggs, and raise the young ones? At the end of April, it was discovered that a humming bird nest was being built on a sliding gate. This little bird busily built her nest out of mud and twigs. After completing her nest, she laid 2 tiny black eggs. Because this gate gets a lot of use, there had to be great care taken not to disturb mother or nest, and under the watchful eyes of Debbie & Rojo, this was accomplished, and several weeks later both eggs hatched. The four proud parents ( 2 bird, 2 human) were still carefully tending the nest. Did you know the Father hummer anchors the babies feet into the nest with mud, so they won't fall out until they are old enough to fly? Our two newest winged residents have left the nest. Maybe you are feeding them.

DID YOU EVER SEE A HAPPY HUMMINGBIRD?
SUCH DELIGHTFUL LITTLE CREATURES
THEY CAN'T CONTROL THEMSELVES,
WHILE YOU'RE FILLING THEIR FEEDERS.
HOW THEY MAKE THEIR CLICKING NOISES,
I HAVEN'T DECIDED.
THEY GO FLITTING OVER YOUR HEAD,
OR SIT ON A CLOTHESLINE.
PERHAPS THE CLICKING IS--"THANK YOU,
FOR FILLING MY FEEDER", IN HUMMING BIRD STYLE.*

*This was excerpted from the Cholla Chatter--Dec. 1977, from a column written by Thelma Brown, called Hill-top Viewpointers, From The Birds.

PONTOON BOAT HEADQUARTERS

TUCSON CHAPTER GENERAL MEETING
By Shelly Bock

This month the Tucson chapter held it's meeting at Pinnacle Peak restrant. The members enjoyed the scrumptious steaks and other dishes they have to offer.

All the patriotic members had previously voted for the new presidential candidate. Sesame Street candidates, Bert and Ernie were left off the ballot so deciding between The Duke and Georgie Porgie was not easy. The Duke was bushwacked, however, and Georgie got his puddin and pie.

Our two newest members of the Tucson chapter are Aaron and Lupe Petty. Welcome to the club. It was great to have members Glenn Hotchkiss, Jerry Kitchens, Dean Fisher and long-time member Stanley Root with us tonight. Also, welcome back C. Baumgardner.

It was announced, with great sadness, that Tom Boyle passed away recently. Our prayers are with all his friends and family.

President Betty Yeates advised that everyone should make sure to stop in Sonoita for Visas as they are checking for them at the old check-point. She also said, point of interest, that the shrimp boats have been operating close to the bay in Cholla.

Christmas is right around the corner, or bay as it is. GET in the spirit. Donations are needed pronto.

The next board meeting will be held at Tozzi's home, December 3rd and 1:00 p.m.

Door Prize Winners:

- Vi Sedlock - Jacket
- Chuck Dernberger - Cholla Bay pin
- Art Day - Cholla Bay sticker

A big thanks to Hild Tozzi for her help with Tucson Chatter news this month.

Next months meeting will be held at Pinnacle Peak restrant. With good food and X-mas spirits, it should be lots of fun.

SANDCAST Candles

First, get all your items together such as box, sand, parafine, crayons to color your parafine, wick and your mold. Dampen the sand in the box, then press your mold into the sand until it is nice and firm. Remove the mold and set your wick. Pour the parafine which has been melted and colored into the mold. When the parafine sets, push the sand away and remove from the sand. Now brush the loose sand from the candle with a soft paint brush and spray with plastic or varnish spray.

You can use your last years candles and proceed in the same manner. It's a lot of fun to experiment with different forms and colors. Also, one can scent the candles with pine oil. Only one word caution. Parafine gets very hot so be careful when you are melting and pouring.
