

65th ANNUAL FISHING DERBY

Submitted by Enedina Otañez

After two years without a fish fry much can change. It was very difficult to estimate what the turnout would be and many details tend to be forgotten. We are happy to announce that it was a great success and I want to thank all the volunteers, new and old and the donations afforded to the club. Jeni O'Callaghan's crew, the Mims, Joy, Levi, Alan at the beer dispensing, and Scotty; Bev McCasky, Karen Peitsmeyer, Zeek and Danielle O'Callaghan. Gaye Faubian, Luz Imelda Ramirez, a new homeowner in Cholla, Elsa and Marco Antonio Meza, Augie Morales, David and Julian Borboa. Alma Rozadilla not only helped in the kitchen but did art work on aprons. Gaby and Jovana Camargo from Cholla Bay who have been a great help every year with their knowledge of the clubhouse details and who also clean the aftermath.

We encourage new volunteers to join us and there were several young men wishing to participate in the fish frying. This is the most delicate and dangerous part of the process and it is difficult for the experienced crew to stop in the middle and demonstrate the process. In the future if anyone is interested in being part of the frying crew, I recommend that you are at clubhouse at 2:00 PM to be properly instructed.

A special thanks to Chef Angel Morales who laid out the perfect fish preparation recipe many years ago and was missed this year for the first time in a long time. He just opened a new restaurant in Kingman, Arizona and his first son was born a few weeks ago.

What about the Ice Cream Parlor? It was a big hit. My daughters, Mavia Boboa and Marina Montañó assisted Maya and Paloma Borboa run a speedy turn around for a long line waiting to be served. Great job girls. I cannot go without thanking my 10 year old grandson, Julian Borboa, because after helping prep the fish, he decided it would be best to be my manager and report the progress of all the tasks.

A big thank you to Vasquez Licores and the Mendoza family for their continued support. We missed Mark and I know he wanted and planned to be there even though he had just returned from knee surgery on Friday. I understand he had to wait in the long line to get into Mexico.

Sal & Enedina Otañez donated aprons and Ice cream and toppings

Michael and Teresa Orcutt donated $100 for beer

Angel Morales and Rickety Cricket Brewing (ricketycricket.com) donated $100 for beer

	Canción Tequila is the award-winning brand of 100 percent Blue Weber agave tequilas from international touring and recording artists Roger Clyne &amp; The Peacemakers (formerly The Refreshments). Named after the Spanish translation of 'Song', Canción Tequila has found popularity on both sides of the border, boasting four varieties — Blanco, Reposado and Añejo— all having earned medals from national and international competitions, and the newly released Extra Añejo. Like Clyne himself – a third generation Arizonan who was born in Tucson - Canción Tequila is a staple of the Southwest and a fast growing name in the Tequila industry. Our ultra-premium line of Tequilas was formerly known for years as Roger Clyne's Mexican Moonshine. In 2021 our Tequila was re-born as Canción Tequila. All varieties are double-distilled and then filtered three times to create a spirit so smooth you can sip it.	 The original "circle burner" circlebtechnologies.com
