FISH ALERT! FISH ALERT!

The fish inhabitants of the Sea of Cortez have issued an alert to all it's members that there is little to fear from anglers because the windy, cold weather has kept them from venturing out in the ocean. Those brave and hardy fishermen who did make an effort to catch the wily pescado were generally rewarded with sore bodies and costly gasoline bills for their trouble. Villa related that there were a few exceptions. Mike Orcutt's boat brought several nice white sea bass to the cleaning slab right after the MLK weekend and Mike Gallagher's vessel Groupzilla returned from out west with groupers and sardineros. These fishermen make one ask the question, "What am I doing wrong?" Anyway, as the weather warms and the see flattens, the fishing should improve, especially in an El Nino year. CBSC HORSESHOE TOURNAMENT

Helen Dahlstrom has agreed to co-host this event with me and I am getting lots of help from "Party Hardy" Ken Moroney. We have had several requests to add 2 "corn hole" (bean bag toss) pits to the tournament and are looking for a volunteer to keep score. If you would like to help in any way, contact Billie at chollamidget@gmail.com. 2016 WINE PARTY

What an amazing turnout we had for the 2016 Wine Party! (I call it this because it has been decided that we will DEFINITELY be including this in our regular lineup of events.) Everyone had a fantastic time and we had wonderful snacks and excellent wines. We expected to see no more than 35 people but were pleased when we counted over 60 in attendance! There were even some long time club members who hadn't been seen in a while that came in from Kino Bay to say HELLO!

We had some great cooks at this event, all the food was tasty! The dumplings with the amazing dipping sauce and the puff pastry rolled with brie and ham were the favorite appetizers of the evening I think. (If they weren't the favorite, they disappeared pretty darn fast!) I stuck with the Kim Crawford Sauvignon Blanc for wine though there were SO MANY great wines to choose from! (We do have good taste in Cholla Bay and it was fun to see what wines everyone likes!) I was also one of the lucky ones that got to try Cindy's coveted Blackberry Wine from Tennessee!

The party ran from five to eight as was planned. (Although I know that there were some diehards who were disappointed that we'd already reached the end and suggested we keep on keeping on ha-ha!!) I was so grateful to all those who stayed to help clean up. Since it wasn't a regular event where we used the kitchen and hired someone to come in and clean up after us, it was absolutely wonderful to have everyone chip in and just get it done!

Thank you all for coming, I think it says a lot about our CBSC Gang wanting to spend free time together and I know I sure enjoy seeing all of you! We're talking about an educational tasting in the near future. Drop me a line if you'd be interested in something like that. Later Alligators!
